More, Newer, Better: Construction on the Eastside

Four major construction projects are underway for the Eastside. At the BTS site (now East Village), new condos and townhouses are seeing their first residents move in, though all 177 planned units will not be finished until 2009. Construction continues on the new Pattengill Middle School, which will be completed in fall 2006. Sparrow Hospital is preparing to erect a new 10-story building south of Jerome St. And at Lansing Catholic Central, major renovations are in progress.

At Sparrow, the initial construction is happening in an area between the hospital and the parking deck. The new building will include a surgery area in the lower level and an emergency room on the first floor. The two floors above that will be new critical care units, and possibly a cardiology center, subject to state approval. The building may eventually go to ten floors. Due to construction, Jerome St. will be blocked off starting on Aug. 29, just west of Pattengill Jr. High, and will remain blocked off for several years. Construction will last 3 to 4 years, and will result in about 150 new jobs at Sparrow.

LCC is refitting its entire physical infrastructure: heating and cooling, electrical systems, fire alarms and extinguishers, and more. In the classroom wings, crews are replacing ceilings, lighting, floors and windows, and adding cabinets to each classroom. Science classrooms are getting new lab stations as well. The building's exterior walls will be strengthened by improving ties between the brick and block walls and adding a limestone cap to exterior perimeter walls. New signage and paint will give a finishing touch.

First Annual Hunter Park Music Fest a Success

The first annual Hunter Park Music Fest, held on July 30, was a tremendous success. In addition to music from Zydecrunch, Smokehouse, and The Lash, the event featured guest speakers including Senator Debbie Stabenow and Mayor Tony Benavides. The speakers offered congratulations on our Cool City designation. Parks employees estimated attendance over the course of the event at nearly 1000 people. While this figure may be a little high, it was clearly the biggest event the park has ever seen. There was also substantial interest in another Music Fest next year. Many thanks to everyone who made this event happen, and to everyone who came to meet their neighbors and enjoy some rocking tunes! Related article on p. 2

Chess Knights Go Wired

The Tuesday Chess Knights will be moving from their long-time home at ANC to Gone Wired Café at 2021 E. Michigan Ave, 853-0550, starting on Sept. 6. The time will remain 6 to 8 PM. The move will give the group a larger space and more exposure to potential players. As always, all ages and skill levels are welcome.

ANC Update

Activities and programs offered by Allen Neighborhood Center

YSC Member of the Month

Rachel Jackson

September's YSC Member of the Month is Rachel Jackson. Rachel is an 6th grader at Hope Middle school. Rachel was chosen for her upbeat attitude and her work ethic. Congratulations Rachel!

Kid News from YSC

The youth had an exciting summer! In May, the youth went on a cultural trip in Detroit. In July, the youth hosted the Peace Jam Blowout, which was a huge success. In August, the youth went to Battle Creek to meet Archbishop Desmond Tutu. There are more trips to come in the future. We at the YSC believe that hard work should be rewarded.

During the summer months we will be mowing lawns. In order to get your lawn mowed, the yard should be free of debris, sticks, and dog droppings. The grass should not be taller than six inches. If the lawn does not meet these guidelines, we cannot mow it.

Attention volunteers: YSC is in need of volunteers. If you are willing to dedicate a few hours a week to deserving youth, we want you. If interested, contact Rosa at 485-7630 or ancrosa@sbcglobal.net.

Breadbasket: Bigger and Better

Free bread, fresh produce gleaned from area gardens and over-the-counter medicines (Sept. 21 only) are all available at ANC's Breadbasket, for Eastside residents only. Come in every Wednesday from 12-6:30!

Wednesday Morning Senior Coffee

(Non-seniors are welcome, too!)

September 7: Field Trip: We will meet at Schuler's in the café to buy Snow Flower and the Secret Fan by Lisa See, for next month's Book Chat.

September 14: Restorative Justice, Part 2 An alternative to incarceration for juveniles, presented by Karen Beauregard.

September 21: River Lowering Ronda Oberlin, the facilitator of the Emergency Management Task Force, will be talking about the proposed dam removal as a flood mitigation strategy.

September 28: TBA

Food Chatter

On July 20, the Food Team conducted the first Dot Survey at the Farmers Market. We wondered about who and why and how people were coming to the market. Thank you to those who participated! About 56% of the people who came to the market completed the survey. Of the participants, we learned that just under half of those who come live on the Eastside and half live out of the area. Most patrons bought something at the market that day, and most came to the market by car. Many of you had not been to the market the previous week. We also learned that almost half of you grow some of your own food, and a third of you do not, but would like to gain more knowledge about how to do so.

To learn more about how you can grow your own food, The Garden Project is a great resource. Please contact them at 887-4660 for more info.

Look for the second and final dot survey later in the market season! If you would like to know how you could volunteer at the Farmer's Market, please contact Ameer at 485-7630 for more information.

ANC would like to thank:

- Judy King, Debbie Miner, Chris Swope and Joan Nelson for their Senior Coffee presentations
- Jim Dunn, Marquetta Frost and MSU Extension 4H Youth programs for their donations.
- Sierra Ray for volunteering for YSC.
- Food Team Volunteers: Jack and Vivian Stauffer, Amy Berns, Dave Finet, Gail Gonzales, Jenny Martin, Laura DeLind, Linnaea Stockall, Linda Anderson, Linda Cole-Goldberg, Liz O'Brien, Margaret Demps, Rameses Demps, Mark Edick, Marty Heller, Meghan Bradley Chamberlain, Michael Fortino, Nancy Benchley, Sarah Toas, Shannon Proctor, Shelly Frazier, Taylor Reid, Ursula Wharton, Yoyo Webb
- Farmers Market Entertainers: Kelsey Kennedy, Katie Kennedy, Lauren Kennedy, Andy Kennedy, Frederick Blaisdell, Douglas Blaisdell, Phil Wintermute, Brian Cook, Phil Wintermute, Pete Nelson, Lou Gonzales, and Kyle Rogers
- Francine Watts and Tammy Uribe for nurturing our kinship group
- James Pyle for his work with new homebuyers
- The dozens of people who worked to make the Hunter Park Music Fest a success, especially Bri Havens and Corie Jason
- Dave Stewart and Reese Farms for providing corn for our seniors.

Across the Neighborhood

Neighborhood News

ABC: ABC will be meeting on Tues. Sept. 6 at 6:30 PM in Pilgrim Church. We will discuss the road closure of Michigan Ave set for 2006 and a suggestion to open Holmes St. at Eureka again. We hope to have a representative from the city. We may also talk about ideas for the coming year. If you have any questions/concerns please contact Denise Kelley at 484-9109.

Foster Your Neighborhood: We will hold our next member meeting on Wed. Sept. 21, 7 PM at Foster Community Center. Contact John Mertz at 482-5200 for more info.

Prospect Protectors: Thanks to the Prospect Protectors that helped make our annual block party a success and to the Mayor's Grant for supplying food, door prizes and paper products! Our next meeting is October 19th at 6:30 PM at ANC.

Potter Walsh: Faith Fellowship Baptist Church has a food pantry and clothes closet for those in need. Call 853-9897 for an appointment.

Potter/ Walsh Neighborhood Association, in conjunction with Faith Fellowship Baptist Church, Morning Star COGIC, and Holy Praise, is sponsoring a Back to School Bash with food and free school supplies on Sept. 10 at Walsh Park from 12 noon to 2 PM.

PLACE: PLACE has a neighborhood cookbook for sale for $5. They are for sale at several places on Michigan Ave. including Applause Salon, Bancroft Flowers, Jerusalem Bakery, Recovery Thrift Store and more. The money raised will be used to beautify area yards.

Kinship Care: We're having a picnic on Sept. 10 from 11 AM to 3 PM. Come join us at Patriarche Park, at Saginaw and Alton in East Lansing. If you'd like to have a booth at the picnic (at no charge), call Alma or Gloria at 355-9600.

Parent Aide Program: The Parent Aide Program is still looking for volunteers! Volunteer training is scheduled for Thursday Sept. 29. from 5:30 - 9:00. Bring your own dinner, location TBA. If interested, please call Pamela Langford at 484-8444 x14.

Do you feel frustrated, overwhelmed or alone in your parenting? Or do you just need to talk? Circle of Parents offers free meetings for anyone in a parenting role. If you are interested, please call Pamela Langford at 484-8444 x14.

Garden Project: On Saturday, Sept. 24, at 10 AM, The Garden Project will sponsor a Perennial Plant Exchange at the Garden Project Resource Center at Foster Park. Bring your healthy perennials in pots or bags to exchange with other Eastside gardeners. Please label your plants with the name, size at maturity, and light requirements, if known. For more information, call The Garden Project, 887-4660.

Featured Business

Women's Center of Greater Lansing: We are now open and scheduling appointments for women interested in finding a job, personal counseling, receiving a massage or just learning what we do. The Women's Center is located at 1710 E. Mich. Ave. between Shepard and Leslie. We offer career counseling, job development, resume preparation, transferable skills analysis and a Job Seekers Support Group.

The Center also has personal counseling, parenting classes, and a support group and workshop for women who are experiencing divorce or the loss of a relationship. Other seminars on business development will also be offered before the end of the year. For more information, call 372-9163 or stop by 1710 E. Michigan Ave.

School Principals Speak

Eastern High School: This year Eastern High School will try a different approach in reaching its new 9th graders. All the freshman at Eastern will be housed on the second floor and placed on teams. These support teams will include the students' teachers and counselors. Core subject areas will be mainly taught in the morning with electives taught in the afternoon. Academic support will be available before school, during lunch, and after school. A behavioral specialist will also assist with socialization problems and peer mediation.

We believe that all students can learn, with the right motivation to be successful. We will work toward this by building relationships, being consistent, and creating a favorable environment. We welcome new and returning students. Go Quakers!

Our Homecoming will be Sept. 30, against Jackson at Everett, 7 PM. Come out and show your spirit by supporting our team under its new coach, Edward Sadde.

Bingham Elementary: Girls On the Run, sponsored by Sparrow, will be offered at Bingham for 15 girls in grades 3-5. They will meet Mon. and Wed. after school with a volunteer coach to train for a 5K race. Each participant will get a water bottle, T-shirt, and New Balance running shoes. To sign up, contact the office. The program will start on Sept. 12.

Fairview Elementary: We are having an open house on Wednesday, Sept. 7th from 6 to 7 PM. We also will have a Burger King fundraiser night on Wed., Sept. 21st, from 5 to 7 PM.

The People and Groups Making a Difference On the Eastside

Sparrow Hospital: Partners for a Healthy Eastside

Sparrow Health System is the fourth-largest employer in the Lansing area, with 6,000 employees. It is the most visible presence on Michigan Avenue, and an architectural landmark. But how does Sparrow make a difference to the Eastside? How have they moved from a sometimes prickly relationship with Eastside residents to being one of their strongest partners?

According to Rick Kibbey, long-time Eastside activist, some of the problems began long ago with parking. Sparrow employees were parking along the streets in the neighborhoods around the hospital. In addition, Sparrow policy was to use surface parking as a means for acquiring land for future development. While some residents sold their property, others refused.

A breakthrough came when residents met with Sparrow's new security person, J. McGinnis, who initiated a discussion about how to solve the parking problem for Sparrow employees. This became a mechanism for starting larger discussions. The critical turning point in the relationship came when Sparrow purchased a steel factory for new offices, Schultz Snyder and Steel, near the railroad tracks. The guideline that residents offered was, "Expand into the commercial areas, not into the neighborhood". Sparrow's decision, while it may have been controversial internally, indicated a change in policy and a recognition of the value of good relations with the neighborhood. A similar message delivered by the neighborhood was "Build up, not out," a message taken to heart in recent expansions.

In the 1990's, Sparrow partnered with MSU, LCC, and the school district to create a Health Education Collaborative — a health careers track at Sparrow. This program still exists, with two classrooms at Sparrow and two at Hill High School. The effort produced useful discussion and an opportunity for trust-building, which proved useful when Sparrow formed a campus plan.

There was a real possibility at this time that Sparrow would decide to move. One of their key issues was the bridge over Michigan Ave. In order to remain on the Eastside, they needed a variance from City Council to construct the skywalk. While some residents were opposed, many realized the importance of Sparrow's presence and advocated on their behalf. After a close vote at City Council, the overpass was approved, and the Eastside neighbors had proven to be reliable partners.

In 1996, a number of Sparrow officials became interested in the Healthy Communities movement — an approach developed by the World Health Organization, where health is defined very broadly to include housing, education, access to health resources, income, etc. Sparrow and the ENO, under the leadership of Joe Damore and Mary Margaret Woll, president of ENO, hosted the Eastside Summit in May of 1996. This event drew about a hundred people interested in talking about the health of the Eastside. They identified three priorities: 1, access to health; 2, housing and population stability; and 3, families and neighborhoods. Summit members organized three teams around those priorities, and each team went to work on developing strategies. The Access to Health team came up with the Health Navigator project, implemented in 1997. The Housing team founded the Housing Ambassadors in 1998, and the Families and Neighborhoods team started the Youth Service Corps, which became the first program of Allen Neighborhood Center. When ANC formed in late 1999, the Eastside Summit was absorbed into its operations.

Beth Spyke, Director of Community Health Education at Sparrow, noted that the Eastside Summit began as a dialogue between the Eastside and Sparrow, later joined by the Ingham County Health Department, asking, "Can we create a vision for a healthy, vibrant Eastside?". Sparrow, looking for opportunities to be a good corporate neighbor, wanted to invest in the neighborhood by funding the summit and several other initiatives, including the city's first Walk to Work / HOPE program (see article on p. 5) to help employees buy a house in neighborhoods near the hospital. The entire Summit project has grown exponentially in the last five years, to include not only the Eastside but also neighborhoods around Sparrow St. Lawrence. Beth added, "As the Eastside goes, so goes Sparrow. It's a win-win for everybody when we can help revitalize neighborhoods."

Sparrow continues to be a good friend to ANC and to ENO. They have representation at ENO meetings and make a special effort to share information about construction projects, new programs, special events, etc. They see themselves as partners with neighborhood-based institutions in creating a healthy Eastside.

Ira Ginsburg, vice-president of Sparrow, explained, "In the last fifteen years, we've built a stronger relationship with the Eastside neighborhood. We had some issues prior to that, but recently we've worked as partners rather than separate entities."

New State Website for Michigan Internships

There's a new website to help students looking for an internship in the state of Michigan. Located at www.michigan.gov/miintern, the site offers tips for students, employers and educators. It also features a search engine that allows students to review more than 400 internship opportunities, and basic guidelines on getting the important first job, resume and cover letter writing, and job interviewing. Keep in mind that ANC welcomes interns as well! Call Joan Nelson at 367-2468 if you're interested in working with us.

Be Your Own Boss Website

The state also has an excellent resource for starting your own business, available at www.michigan.gov/beyourownboss. For entrepreneurs at any stage, the site helps to start a business, grow a business, find financing, and more. It also offers a glossary of business terms, listings of state resources, free online courses, and a Business Startup Wizard.

Progress Continues on Path and Greenhouse

A schedule has been set for construction of a new walking path and greenhouse in Hunter Park, funded by the Cool City grant. Work will begin on the walking path immediately and on the greenhouse soon after. Watch future editions of the Eastside Monthly for our new walking clubs and gardening opportunities, or join the Friends of Hunter Park at ANC on Sept. 12 at 7:30 to learn more about other changes coming to the park.

HEALTH in PERSPECTIVE: Infant Mortality

A Local Take on a Worldwide Tragedy

The number of babies who die before their first birthday can tell a lot about the health and well-being of a community. Compared to 20 years ago, fewer babies overall are dying during their first year. However, many more Black babies die each year than White babies. This disparity exists nationally, statewide, and within Ingham County.

- In 2002 for every 1,000 White babies born in the US, 5.8 of died. For every 1,000 Black babies born, 14.4 died.
- In 2002 for every 1,000 White babies born in Michigan, 6.0 died. For every 1,000 Black babies born, 18.4 died.
- Between 2001-2003 for every 1,000 White babies born in Ingham County 4.8 died. For every 1,000 Black babies born, 14.7 died.
- Babies are more likely to die within their first year if they are born:
  - Premature or low birth weight
  - To mothers under 20 or over 40
  - To mothers who smoked during pregnancy
  - To mothers who had little or no prenatal care

Learn more about infant mortality disparities and help identify strategies to reduce them. Come to the Infant Mortality Mini-summit detailed at right.

Infant deaths are a community problem that needs a community solution. Help create the change that brings a brighter future for tomorrows babies.

Healing Foods Highlight:

WALNUTS

Walnuts are full of vitamins, minerals, protein, fiber, and even the super Omega-3 fatty acids. They also contain:

- Ellagic acid, a cancer-fighting antioxidant
- Polyunsaturated fats, which help reduce bad cholesterol and increase good cholesterol.
- Arginine, an amino acid that helps to keep arteries relaxed. This reduces the risk of blockages that can cause heart attack.

Join our Breast Health Club and receive a free bag of walnuts. We will also send you monthly self-exam reminders and invitations to special events. Call Sarah today to join, 367-2468.

If you have MEDICARE...
Big Changes Are Coming!

- § New Medicare prescription drug plans will be available to people with Medicare beginning January 1, 2006.
- § Enrollment begins November 15, 2005.
- § Monthly premiums will be around $37. There will be a $250 deductible.
- § You will need to pick a plan from several to be offered.
- § Extra help is available for those with an income level less than 150% of the federal poverty level and with limited assets.
